

Week 3: The Creation of Man and Woman

JSS1 Christian Religious Studies (CRS) — First Term Lesson Note (Deep-Dive Edition)

Introduction

While Genesis 1 gives a summary of all creation, Genesis 2:4-24 gives a closer, more detailed account of how God specifically created man and woman.

The Creation of Man

According to Genesis 2:7, God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being. God then placed the man in the Garden of Eden “to work it and take care of it” (Genesis 2:15).

The Creation of Woman

God observed, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him” (Genesis 2:18). God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, took one of his ribs, and formed the woman from it (Genesis 2:21-22). When the man saw her, he said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh” (Genesis 2:23).

Key Events in Order

Event	Scripture Reference
Man formed from the dust of the ground	Genesis 2:7
God breathes the breath of life into man	Genesis 2:7
Man placed in the Garden of Eden to work and care for it	Genesis 2:15
God declares it is not good for man to be alone	Genesis 2:18
Woman formed from the man's rib	Genesis 2:21-22
Man and woman become “one flesh”	Genesis 2:24

Real-Life Application

This account teaches that every human being has great value, since we are made in a special way by God Himself and given the breath of life. It also teaches that men and women are meant to be companions and partners to one another, working together rather than living in isolation.

Vocabulary

Word	Meaning
Rib	A curved bone from the chest area; used by God to form the woman
Helper/Companion	A partner who assists and shares life with another
Eden	The garden where God placed the first man and woman
