

TOPIC 8: LITERATURE – DRAMA, FOLKTALES AND FIGURES OF SPEECH

1. Introduction to Drama

Drama is literature written to be performed. It uses dialogue and stage directions. Types include comedy, tragedy and others. Elements: characters, plot, dialogue, setting, theme, costume and props (in performance).

2. Characterization and Themes

Study how characters are presented in the recommended prose and drama texts and identify the main themes (messages) of the works.

3. Folktales

A folktale is a traditional story passed down orally. Features: simple characters (often animals or ordinary people), clear conflict, moral lesson, and cultural setting. Practise narrating a folktale with beginning, middle and end.

4. Figures of Speech (Introduction)

- Simile – comparison using like or as (as brave as a lion).
- Metaphor – direct comparison (He is a lion in battle).
- Irony – saying the opposite of what is meant, or a situation that turns out contrary to expectation.

Identify these in recommended texts and in everyday language.

5. Summary

Drama is for performance; folktales teach culture and morals; similes, metaphors and irony enrich language. Link all study to the recommended texts.
