

TOPIC 2: QUR'ANIC RECITATION – SURATUL TARIQ (Q86:1–17)

Surah At-Tariq (The Night Comer / The Morning Star)

1. Introduction to the Surah

Surah At-Tariq is the 86th chapter of the Qur'an. It is a Makki Surah (revealed in Makkah) and contains 17 verses. It belongs to Juz 30 (Ammah). The name 'At-Tariq' means 'The Night Comer' or 'The Piercing Star'.

2. Full Text with English Translation

Bismillahir-Rahmanir-Rahim (In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful)

1. By the sky and the night comer –
2. And what can make you know what the night comer is?
3. It is the piercing star –
4. There is no soul but that it has over it a protector (guardian angel).
5. So let man observe from what he was created.
6. He was created from a fluid, ejected,
7. Emerging from between the backbone and the ribs.
8. Indeed, Allah is Able to return him (to life).
9. The Day when secrets will be put on trial,
10. Then man will have no power and no helper.
11. By the sky which returns (rain),
12. And the earth which cracks open (for plants),
13. Indeed, this (Qur'an) is a decisive statement,
14. And it is not amusement.
15. Indeed, they are plotting a plan,
16. But I am planning a plan.
17. So allow time for the disbelievers. Leave them awhile.

3. Explanation and Meaning

Allah swears by the sky and the piercing star (At-Tariq) to emphasize that every soul is watched over by guardian angels. Man is reminded of his humble origin – created from a fluid that comes from between the backbone and the ribs. This shows Allah's power to create and also to resurrect people on the Day of Judgment, when all secrets will be revealed and no one will have power or helper except Allah.

The Surah ends by affirming that the Qur'an is a serious, decisive word – not a joke – and that Allah's plan will overcome the plots of the disbelievers.

4. Lessons from Suratul Tariq

- Every human being is under the constant watch of Allah and His angels.
- Reflecting on our creation (from a simple fluid) should make us humble and grateful.
- Allah has the power to resurrect us just as He created us the first time.
- On the Day of Judgment, all hidden deeds and secrets will be exposed.

- No one can escape accountability; only Allah can help on that Day.
- The Qur'an is a serious and decisive guidance – not for entertainment.
- Patience and trust in Allah's plan are necessary when facing opposition.

5. Key Themes

- Divine watchfulness and protection
- Human origin and resurrection
- Accountability on the Day of Judgment
- The seriousness of the Qur'anic message
