Bismillahir-Rahmanir-Rahim

1. When the sky has split open,
2. And has responded to its Lord and was obligated to do so,
3. And when the earth has been extended,
4. And has ejected all that is in it and becomes empty,
5. And has responded to its Lord and was obligated to do so –
6. O mankind, indeed you are labouring toward your Lord with great exertion and will meet Him.
7. Then as for he who is given his record in his right hand,
8. He will be judged with an easy account,
9. And will return to his people in happiness.
10. But as for he who is given his record behind his back,
11. He will cry out for destruction,
12. And will enter a Blaze (Hellfire).
13. Indeed, he had been among his people in happiness (in this world),
14. Indeed, he thought he would never return (to Allah).
15. But yes! Indeed, his Lord was ever watching him.
- 16–18. So I swear by the twilight glow, and by the night and what it envelops, and by the moon when it becomes full,
19. You will surely experience state after state (stages of life and afterlife).
- 20–21. So what is the matter with them that they do not believe, and when the Qur'an is recited to them, they do not prostrate?
- 22–23. But those who have disbelieved deny, and Allah is most knowing of what they keep within themselves.
24. So give them tidings of a painful punishment,
25. Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds; for them is a reward uninterrupted.

3. Explanation and Meaning

The Surah opens with a vivid description of the Day of Judgment: the sky will split open and the earth will be flattened and empty its contents. Both the sky and the earth will obey their Lord completely. Every human being is travelling toward meeting Allah through the struggles of life. On that Day, people will receive their book of deeds. Those who receive it in their right hand will have an easy reckoning and return to their families happily. Those who receive it behind their backs (or in their left hand) will face destruction and Hellfire because they lived in heedlessness, thinking they would never return to Allah.

4. Lessons from Suratul Inshiqaq

- The universe will undergo massive changes on the Day of Judgment; everything will obey Allah.
- Every person is journeying toward meeting Allah and will be held accountable for their deeds.
- Receiving the record of deeds in the right hand is a sign of success and easy reckoning.
- Receiving the record behind the back or in the left hand is a sign of failure and punishment.
- Worldly happiness without faith can lead to eternal regret.
- Allah is always watching us; nothing is hidden from Him.
- Life consists of stages – from this world to the Hereafter.
- Believers who do righteous deeds will receive an uninterrupted, everlasting reward.

5. Key Themes

- Events of the Day of Judgment
- Human accountability and the book of deeds
- Contrast between the successful and the unsuccessful
- The importance of belief and good deeds
