

JSS 2 ENGLISH STUDIES – FIRST TERM

TOPIC 4: READING COMPREHENSION

1. Purpose of Reading

Reading for main ideas, details, writer's purpose, inference and vocabulary in context. Good comprehension is the foundation of learning in all subjects.

2. SPQ3R / SQ3R Technique

Survey (look over title, headings), Question (ask what you want to know), Read, Recite (say key points in your own words), Review. This method improves understanding and memory.

3. Skimming and Scanning

Skimming: rapid reading for the general idea. Scanning: looking quickly for a specific fact or word. Both are useful for exams and research.

4. Identifying Writer's Purpose

Is the writer informing, persuading, entertaining or instructing? Clues come from tone, choice of words and structure.

5. Vocabulary in Context

Guess meanings of unfamiliar words from surrounding sentences. Note words related to themes such as health, administration, corruption and education.

6. Summary

Use systematic strategies (SPQ3R, skimming, scanning) and always look for main ideas, supporting details and the writer's intention.
