

TOPIC 6: LETTER WRITING – FORMAL AND INFORMAL

1. Informal Letters

Written to friends and family. Features: sender's address, date, greeting (Dear ...), friendly body, closing (Yours sincerely / Your friend), name. Language is relaxed and personal. Topics: news, invitations, thanks, description of events.

2. Formal Letters

Written to officials, schools, companies. Features: sender's address, date, recipient's address, formal greeting (Dear Sir/Madam), clear subject or purpose, formal body in paragraphs, formal closing (Yours faithfully / Yours sincerely), signature and full name. Language is polite and objective.

3. Types of Formal Letters

Application, complaint, request, invitation (official), letter to the editor, apology.

4. Layout Tips

Use correct punctuation and paragraphing. Keep formal letters concise and to the point. Check spelling and grammar before submitting.

5. Summary

Informal letters are personal and friendly; formal letters are official and polite. Master the layout and tone of each type.

End of Topic 6