

TOPIC 7: ESSAY / COMPOSITION WRITING

1. Types of Composition

- Narrative – tells a story (e.g. How I Spent My Holiday)
- Descriptive – paints a picture with words (e.g. A Place I Visited, A Local Festival)
- Argumentative – presents arguments for or against a view
- Expository – explains a process or idea

2. Stages of Writing

Pre-writing (brainstorm, outline), Writing (introduction, body, conclusion), Editing and proofreading. Always plan before you write.

3. Structure

Introduction: set the scene or state the topic. Body: develop points in clear paragraphs with topic sentences and supporting details. Conclusion: sum up or give a final thought. Use linkers (first, then, however, finally) for coherence.

4. Narrative Essay Tips

Use past tense for past events; include setting, characters, sequence of events and a clear ending. Make it interesting with specific details.

5. Descriptive Essay Tips

Use sensory language (sight, sound, smell, touch, taste) and vivid adjectives. Organise by spatial order or by features.

6. Summary

Good composition has a clear plan, organised paragraphs, appropriate language and careful editing. Practise both narrative and descriptive essays.
