

TOPIC 3: QUR'ANIC RECITATION – SURATUL GHASHIYAH (Q88:1–26)

1. Introduction

Suratul Ghashiyah (The Overwhelming Event) is a Makkan Surah with 26 verses. It describes the Day of Judgement and contrasts the fate of the disbelievers with that of the believers.

2. Key Themes

- The overwhelming event (Day of Judgement) – faces of some will be downcast, toiling and weary, entering a scorching Fire, given to drink from a boiling spring, with no food except bitter thorn.
- Faces of others will be joyful, well-pleased with their effort, in a lofty Garden with no idle talk, flowing spring, raised couches, cups placed ready, cushions arranged and carpets spread.
- Reflection on creation: the camel, the sky, the mountains, the earth – signs of Allah's power.
- The Prophet is a reminder; people are free to believe or disbelieve, but all will return to Allah for account.

3. Lessons on the Hereafter

- The Hereafter is real; our deeds determine our end.
- Reflect on creation as evidence of the Creator.
- The Prophet's duty is to remind; guidance is from Allah.
- Strive for the reward of Paradise through faith and good deeds.

4. Summary

Suratul Ghashiyah vividly describes the two outcomes on the Day of Judgement and calls people to reflect on Allah's creation and prepare for the Hereafter.
