

TOPIC 6: RULES OF QALQALAH

1. Meaning of Qalqalah

Qalqalah means echoing or vibration. In Tajwid it is the slight bounce or echo produced when certain letters carry a Sukoon (are silent).

2. Letters of Qalqalah

The five letters of Qalqalah are collected in the phrase ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ (Qaf, Ta, Ba, Jim, Dal) – often remembered as “Qutb Jad”. When any of these letters has a Sukoon, Qalqalah is applied.

3. Types of Qalqalah

- Qalqalah Sughra (lesser) – when the letter is in the middle of a word (or not at a stop). The echo is light.
- Qalqalah Kubra (greater) – when the letter is at the end of a word and you stop on it. The echo is stronger.

4. Examples and Practice

Examples: ■■■■■■■■ (Jim with Sukoon), ■■■■ (Dal), ■■■■■■■■ (Ta), ■■■■■■■■ (Qaf), ■■■■ (Ba). Practise stopping on these letters with a clear but controlled bounce.

5. Summary

Qalqalah is the echoing sound on the letters ■ ■ ■ ■ ■ when they have Sukoon. Apply a light echo in the middle of speech and a stronger one when stopping.
