

TOPIC 8: RECREATION AND LEISURE

1. Meaning of Recreation and Leisure

Leisure is free time after work, school and necessary duties. Recreation is the activity undertaken during leisure for enjoyment, relaxation and refreshment of body and mind. Recreation is voluntary and pleasurable.

2. Types of Recreational Activities

Indoor recreational activities: table tennis, ludo, cards, chess, reading, indoor games, some computer games, board games, dancing indoors.

Outdoor recreational activities: football, athletics, swimming, hiking, cycling, gardening, picnics, traditional games and outdoor sports.

3. Differences Between Indoor and Outdoor Recreation

Indoor activities take place inside buildings and are less affected by weather; outdoor activities take place in the open air and often involve more space and natural environment. Both can be active or passive.

4. Benefits of Recreation

- Physical fitness and health
- Mental relaxation and stress reduction
- Social interaction and teamwork
- Development of skills and talents
- Balanced lifestyle and reduced risk of sedentary-related problems

5. Summary

Recreation is enjoyable activity in leisure time. Both indoor and outdoor recreation support physical, mental and social well-being. Choosing healthy recreational activities is an important life skill.

End of Topic 8 – Recreation and Leisure

— End of JSS 2 Physical and Health Education First Term Notes —