

Week 10: Raconter sa journée

JSS3 French — First Term Lesson Note (Deep-Dive Edition)

Introduction

This final topic of the term brings together routine vocabulary (Week 3), past tense grammar (Week 4), and time expressions (Week 9) to help students narrate a full day chronologically, in both the present and the past.

Les mots de séquence (Sequencing Words)

Français	English
d'abord	first
ensuite / puis	then / next
après	after
plus tard	later
enfin / finalement	finally

Raconter sa journée au présent

D'abord, je me réveille à six heures. Ensuite, je prends une douche et je m'habille. Puis, je vais à l'école. L'après-midi, je fais mes devoirs. Enfin, je me couche à vingt-deux heures.

(First, I wake up at six o'clock. Then, I take a shower and get dressed. Then, I go to school. In the afternoon, I do my homework. Finally, I go to bed at ten o'clock.)

Raconter sa journée au passé

Hier, je me suis réveillé à six heures. Ensuite, j'ai pris mon petit-déjeuner et je suis allé à l'école. Après les cours, j'ai joué au football avec mes amis. Enfin, je me suis couché à vingt-deux heures.

(Yesterday, I woke up at six o'clock. Then, I had breakfast and went to school. After classes, I played football with my friends. Finally, I went to bed at ten o'clock.)

Combining the Skills of This Term

Notice how this topic draws on everything learned this term: reflexive verbs and routine vocabulary (Week 3), the passé composé for completed actions (Week 4), and time expressions (Week 9), organized using sequencing words to form a clear, chronological narrative.

Real-Life Application

This is one of the most commonly tested skills in BECE French oral and written exams: narrating a typical day or a specific day's events clearly and in the correct tense and order.
