

TOPIC 2: THE COMING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

1. The Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:1–13)

On the day of Pentecost the disciples were together in one place. Suddenly there came a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and tongues as of fire rested on each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

2. Reactions of the People

Devout Jews from many nations heard them speaking in their own languages the mighty works of God. Some were amazed and perplexed; others mocked and said they were filled with new wine. The event fulfilled Jesus' promise and launched the public witness of the Church.

3. Lessons

- The Holy Spirit empowers ordinary believers for extraordinary witness.
- God's message is for all nations and languages.
- Some will respond with faith; others with mockery – the gospel still goes out.

4. Summary

At Pentecost the Holy Spirit came with power; the disciples spoke in other tongues and the crowd reacted with amazement and mockery. The Church's mission began in earnest.
