

TOPIC 4: COMPOSITION – LETTERS AND STORY WRITING

1. Informal Letter

Address and date; greeting (Dear ...); introduction; body (e.g. plans for the academic session); conclusion; closing (Yours sincerely / Your friend) and name. Tone is friendly and personal.

2. Writing to a Pen-pal

Similar to an informal letter: introduce yourself if needed, share interests and news, ask questions to keep the exchange going, and close warmly.

3. Story Writing – “All that glitters is not gold”

Plan: setting, characters, conflict, climax, resolution. Illustrate the proverb—something that looked attractive turned out to be worthless or harmful. Use past tense for narrative; include dialogue and description for interest.

4. Summary

Informal letters and pen-pal writing use a friendly structure; story writing needs a clear plot that fits the given theme or proverb.
