

TOPIC 3: QUR'ANIC RECITATION – SURATUL SHAMS (Q91:1–15)

1. Introduction

Suratul Shams (The Sun) is a Makkan Surah with 15 verses. It opens with oaths by the sun, the moon, the day, the night, the sky, the earth and the soul, and teaches that success belongs to the one who purifies the soul.

2. Key Themes

- Oaths by natural signs that point to Allah's power.
- By the soul and He who proportioned it, and inspired it with its wickedness and its righteousness.
- Successful is the one who purifies it; failed is the one who buries it (in corruption).
- The people of Thamud denied the truth in their arrogance; they hamstrung the she-camel and their Lord destroyed them for their sin.

3. Lessons on Purity and Righteousness

Purification of the soul (Tazkiyah) through faith, obedience and good character leads to success. Arrogance and rejection of clear signs lead to ruin, as with Thamud.

4. Summary

Suratul Shams teaches that purifying the soul brings success, while corrupting it brings failure. The fate of Thamud warns against arrogance.
