

JSS 3 NIGERIAN HISTORY – FIRST TERM

TOPIC 8: ROLE OF NIGERIA IN AFRICA

1. Peacekeeping Missions

Nigeria has contributed troops and police to peacekeeping and peace-support operations in Africa (e.g. in Liberia, Sierra Leone and other missions under ECOWAS, AU or UN frameworks). These efforts have aimed to end conflicts and restore stability, often at significant cost.

2. Diplomacy

Nigeria is a major player in ECOWAS and the African Union. It has promoted regional integration, mediated in crises and advocated African positions in global forums. Soft power also includes culture, Nollywood and education exchanges.

3. Challenges and Opportunities

Domestic security and economic problems can limit foreign policy capacity. Yet Nigeria's size, population and history give it a continuing responsibility and opportunity to support peace and development on the continent.

4. Summary

Nigeria's role in Africa includes peacekeeping and active diplomacy through ECOWAS, the AU and bilateral relations. A stable, prosperous Nigeria strengthens Africa's voice in the world.

End of Topic 8 – Role of Nigeria in Africa

— End of JSS 3 Nigerian History First Term Notes —