

TOPIC 7: GOOD GOVERNANCE

1. Meaning of Good Governance

Good governance is the responsible, transparent and accountable exercise of power for the public good. It includes effective delivery of services, respect for rights and the rule of law, and participation by citizens.

2. Principles of Good Governance

- Participation and inclusion
- Rule of law
- Transparency
- Accountability
- Responsiveness and effectiveness
- Equity and consensus orientation

3. Citizens' Role in Promoting Good Governance

Vote wisely; demand accountability; pay taxes; refuse bribery; report corruption; participate in community and civic activities; respect the rights of others. Good governance is a partnership between leaders and citizens.

4. Summary

Good governance serves the people through transparency, accountability and the rule of law. Citizens are essential partners in achieving it.

End of Topic 7